

City of Salisbury Fire Department

INFORMATIONAL BULLETIN 2.21.06

DATE: 17 May 2006

TO: All Fire Department Personnel

From: Fire Chief

Subject: Veteran and Rookie Firefighters of the Year

It is with great pride that we announce the 2006 Veteran and Rookie Firefighters of the Year for the Salisbury Fire Department.

The selection of these individuals is a result of painstaking work conducted by the selection committee of Battalion Chief Bo Geter, Fire Engineer Marshall Lancaster and Firefighter Matt Lowman. Lancaster and Lowman were 2005 award honorees. This committee evaluated several worthy nominations that were submitted by our Company Officers.

Our Veteran and Rookie of the year will be recognized at the Salisbury Rotary Club meeting on 23 May 2006 at 1300 hours, along with the award winners from the law enforcement and EMS disciplines.

2006 Salisbury Fire Department Veteran Firefighter of the Year: Captain G. Todd Overcash

Captain Overcash has been with the department for over 23 years and is the assigned shift commander of "C" shift. In addition to Firefighter Level II, Level II Instructor, EMT and Haz Mat Technician, he completed an Associate Degree in Fire Protection Technology in 2005.

City of Salisbury Fire Department

He has also completed the NC Executive Fire Officer Program and is a member of the City's Customer Service Design Team. He developed the department's table-top tactical simulator, is in line for promotion to Battalion Chief, and writes the department's monthly newsletter, The Spotlight.

2006 Salisbury Fire Department Rookie Firefighter of the Year: FCS II Greg S. Summitt

FCS II Greg Summitt has been with the department since 30 August 2004 and he holds various certifications including State Firefighter II, Haz Mat Technician, EMT, Level II Fire Instructor and Fire Apparatus Driver Operator. Greg is also working on his Associate Degree in Fire Protection Technology and serves as the Training Officer for Cleveland Community Volunteer Fire Department.

Congratulations go to Captain Overcash and FCS II Summitt for their contributions to the department and the community during the year.

R.A. Parnell, Chief
Salisbury Fire Department